

I am a flight attendant for US Airways. Not only would cell phone use on airlines give terrorists the upper hand in being able to communicate with each other but it will create more tension between passengers. We already have enough trouble trying to carry out safety duties and this would just add to the chaos between passengers. Please do not allow this to happen!